608 Elmwood St
Coquitlam British Columbia

Description

Elmwood is a choreographed mix of urban experiences, dynamic architecture, and a connected public realm. The architectural genesis of the development is simple in nature but counterpointed with complex and impactful moves. The angular form of the commercial podium responds directly to the shape of the site, accentuated by a visually prominent architectural screen that wraps the podium. This sculptured screen envelopes the structural columns, providing a character-defining element of the building as well as a
